

HOW TO APPLY

University of Washington Graduate Program in Mathematics

Materials to be submitted online:	Test scores to be submitted directly from ETS:
All Applicants <input type="checkbox"/> Complete the University of Washington Application for Admission to Graduate School online, and pay the nonrefundable $65 application fee.	Arrange for ETS to send the following scores directly to institution code 4854: All applicants (department code 0703) <input type="checkbox"/> GRE General Test. <input type="checkbox"/> GRE Math Subject Test (PhD applicants). International Applicants (department code 72) <input type="checkbox"/> TOEFL <input type="checkbox"/> TOEFL iBT (strongly recommended for applicants from non-English speaking countries).
Materials to be mailed to UW Graduate Admissions:	Materials to be mailed to the Math Department:
University of Washington Office of Graduate Admissions 301 Loew Hall Box 84808 Seattle, WA 98124-6108 USA US applicants You do not need to mail any materials to Graduate Admissions if you complete the application and pay the fee online by credit card, unless you have earned a bachelor's or higher degree from an institution outside the United States or its territories. If so, then you must print a copy of the application and send it, together with an official copy of the transcript and degree statement, to the address above. International applicants <input type="checkbox"/> A copy of your completed University of Washington Application for Admission to Graduate School, <input type="checkbox"/> International transcripts with degree statement, including date of graduation and title of academic degree awarded. <input type="checkbox"/> Transcripts from the U.S. and Canada: ask the Registrar to mail official transcripts in a sealed envelope to this office. <input type="checkbox"/> A statement of purpose, consisting of about 200 to 300 words on a separate sheet, detailing your reasons for wishing to enter graduate school in mathematics, your plans for the future, and any other information about you educational and professional objectives that may be relevant to your application. <input type="checkbox"/> Your completed University of Washington Statement of Financial Ability. (Once you have submitted your application online, you must log back into the online application to access the form.) Even if you are applying for financial support from the Math Department, you must complete this form to ensure an accurate student visa application. <input type="checkbox"/> Photocopies of all visa status forms issued to you.	University of Washington Graduate Program in Mathematics C36 Padelford Hall Box 354350 Seattle, WA 98195-4350 USA We prefer that all of the following materials be sent to the Math Department in one large envelope, with transcripts in sealed envelopes provided by the institutions. If it is necessary to have some transcripts mailed separately, you may arrange to have them sent directly to the address above. All applicants <input type="checkbox"/> A copy of your completed University of Washington Application for Admission to Graduate School <input type="checkbox"/> The Mathematics Department's Application for Admission and Financial Aid. <input type="checkbox"/> One copy of your transcript from each prior undergraduate or graduate institution. <input type="checkbox"/> A list of advanced math courses beyond the level of elementary calculus, differential equations, and linear algebra that you will have taken, together with the instructor, school, year, text, grade, and a brief description of the content of each.

