

An inversion analysis for optical tomography.

Gen Nakamura

June 11, 2007

Abstract

We propose a very simple reconstruction scheme to identify the scattering coefficient and absorption coefficient of the optical diffusion equation. This scheme consists of reduction to a harmonic moment problem and a scheme for solving the moment problem.

References

- [1] Kawashita M, Kurylev Y V, Soga H. Harmonic moments and an inverse problem for the heat equation. SIAM J. Math. Anal. 32, (2000)522-537.
- [2] Kolehmainen V. Novel approaches to image reconstruction in diffusion tomography. Ph.D. Thesis(<http://venda.uku.fi/vkolehma/kolehmainen.pdf>).
- [3] Sylvester, J. and Uhlmann, G, A global uniqueness theorem for an inverse boundary value problem. Ann. of Math. 125, (1987),153-169.